

Consistent with the National Forestry National Reform Law of Liberia (2006), with specific reference to Chapter 18, Management is please to share with the general public, the following information: a comprehensive analysis of the various species we have worked with over the period from 2020 to 2025. This report includes detailed metrics such as the number of logs processed, their corresponding volume, and the overall

